Program Facts

Aparicio-Levy Technical College
Hillsborough Technical Colleges

Questions	Answers
	Computer Systems & Information Technology (CSIT) In this program, students learn the skills for entry level jobs in the IT industry. Students will learn to configure and diagnose hardware and software as well as how to connect network devices and understand Cyber-Security practices.	Veterinary Assisting This program trains students to assist Veterinarians and other Veterinary professionals in the care of animal patients. Students will gain hands-on experience in lab skills and will have opportunities for experiences in animal husbandry, grooming and daily pet care.
What do you learn in this program?
What are the entrance requirements?	Complete a short application at the campus. You will need to show your HS diploma (or GED) and residency documents. You may need to meet specific TABE scores (basic skills in Math/Language/Reading) prior to graduation. See a Program Advisor for details.
When does the next class start?	January 7, 2020	October 21, 2019
How long is the program?	900 hours This is a program is offered during the day, and takes approximately 10 months to complete.	750 hours This program is offered during the day, and takes approximately 9 months to complete.
What does the program cost?	Approx. $3,700 (includes tuition, textbooks, materials, supplies, and 3 CompTIA tests)	Approx. $2,700 (includes tuition, textbooks, materials, supplies, and CVA test)
Which Certifications are offered?	CompTIA A+ CompTIA Network+ CompTIA Security +	Certified Veterinary Assistant by the Florida Veterinary Medicine Association
Is Financial Aid available?	Yes, for those individuals who qualify, based on need. To get started, fill out the FASFA at https://fafsa.ed.gov/ and use ALTC's school code: 041942 This will help the Financial Aid Advisor determine what type of aid might be available to you. When you have completed the FASFA, call our Financial Aid Advisors at (813) 231-1907.

For additional information, see our website: www.aparicio-levy.edu or contact our Program Advisor, Mara Esquia at:

mara.esquia@sdhc.k12.fl.us   or   (813) 740-4884

Program Facts

Questions	Answers
	Firefighter I/II (Evening & Saturday class @ Hillsborough County Fire Rescue) In this program, students learn the knowledge and skills needed for the Florida Minimum Standards Fire Fighter exam and prepare for entry level jobs as Fire Fighters. _Pre-requisite: Must hold a valid EMT license to enroll in this program._	In the planning stages … Public Safety Telecommunication (911 Dispatcher) The purpose of this program is to prepare students for employment as a dispatcher for police, fire and ambulance services. Students will receive instruction designed to prepare them for the Florida 911 Public Safety Telecommunicator exam.
What do you learn in this program?
What are the entrance requirements?	Complete a short application at the campus. You will need to show your HS diploma (or GED) and residency documents. You may need to meet specific TABE scores (basic skills in Math/Language/Reading) prior to graduation. See a Program Advisor for details.
When does the next class start?	August 13, 2019	We are in the process of obtaining all agency approvals to start this program. We hope to be ready to go in August 2019. Call the school office in June for updates.
How long is the program?	398 hours, plus 52 hours local requirement. This program meets 3 evenings and all day Saturday, taking approx. 5-6 months to complete.	232 hours This program will be taught in the evenings and will take approximately 4 months to complete.
What does the program cost?	Approx. $2,800 (includes tuition, textbooks, materials, most bunker gear, and state exam)	Approx. $800 (includes tuition, textbooks, materials, supplies, and state exam)
Which Certifications are offered?	Florida Minimum Standards Fire Fighter exam	Florida 911 Public Safety Telecommunicator exam
Is there Financial Aid?	Yes, for those individuals who qualify, based on need. To get started, fill out the FASFA at https://fafsa.ed.gov/ and use ALTC's school code: 041942 This will help the Financial Aid Advisor determine what type of aid might be available to you. When you have completed the FASFA, call our Financial Aid Advisors at (813) 231-1907.

ALTC Mission Statement: "Aparicio-Levy will be valued and recognized for high expectations, industry credibility and relevant technical training. Our students will be equipped with the knowledge and skills necessary to meet their goals and contribute to the continued economic growth of the greater Tampa Bay area."

Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) classes, offered through Learey Technical College, are held on our campus, three evenings a week. See Learey Technical College's website: www.learey.edu for EMT program and registration information.